(words on inside back cover)
The 83rd annual meeting of the Iowa State University 25 Year Club was called to order by President Jack Girton at 6:15 p.m. on Monday, March 5, 2018. President Girton welcomed honorees, guests, supervisors and members, and introduced Iowa State University President Wendy Wintersteen. President Wintersteen related what was happening at Iowa State and around the nation 25, 35, 45 and 50 years ago. She thanked the 113 new honorees for their years of service to ISU — 64 for 25 years of service; 43 for 35 years of service; 5 for 45 years of service; and 1 for 50 years of service.

President Girton introduced current members of the 25 Year Club Committee: Past President Brenda Behling, Vice President Judy Strand and Secretary Brian Meyer. Past President Behling presented the history of the 25 Year Club. Vice President Strand commented that the evening’s dinner celebrated 113 new members representing 3,430 years of service to the university. She then invited guests to honor the memory of deceased university faculty and staff with a moment of silent remembrance.

A buffet dinner was served by VenuWorks.

The annual business meeting was called to order at 7:15 p.m. The minutes of the 2017 meeting were presented for approval by Secretary Meyer. There were no additions or corrections and members approved the minutes as printed in the program.

Past President Behling presented the nominees for club secretary for 2018-2019: Deborah Vance of the International Student and Scholars Office and Karen Zunkel of the Office of the Senior Vice President and Provost. It was moved and seconded that the slate be approved. The motion carried. The two nominees introduced themselves, after which club members voted by paper ballot. After a break, President Girton announced that Deborah Vance had been elected secretary.

President Girton adjourned the business meeting and began the ceremony recognizing honorees who had reached their 25-year status in 2017. Each honoree received a recognition certificate. In addition to the 25-year honorees, individuals who had reached 35- and 45-year status were also recognized.

President Wintersteen provided a special recognition for the 50-year honoree, Donald Beitz, summarizing his career and thanking him for his many contributions to Iowa State.

Following the recognition, President Girton drew names for door prizes, and recognized and thanked the door prize donors and the monetary contributions made in support of the 25-year club: TIAA, Iowa State University Book Store, ISU Alumni Association, ISU Meat Lab, Department of Apparel, Events and Hospitality Management (Tea Room), the Office of Senior Vice President and Provost, and Veenker Memorial Golf Course. President Girton introduced and thanked the ISU University Human Resources administrative representatives who assisted with the planning and coordination of the meeting and the dinner. President Girton introduced Paul Lasley and Walter Trahanovsky and thanked them for providing entertainment.

President Girton passed the gavel to incoming President Judy Strand, who thanked President Girton for his service to the 25 Year Club.

President Strand invited the assembly to join in the singing of the Iowa State Fight Song, accompanied by Paul Lasley and Walter Trahanovsky.

Respectfully submitted,
Brian Meyer, Secretary, 2017-2018

The 25-Year Club of Iowa State was informally founded in 1915 when members of the staff who had served for at least 25 years were honored at a convocation.

The organization was formalized in 1934 under the direction of the late Harold E. Pride, then secretary of the Iowa State College Alumni Association. The club charter was signed on June 9, 1934, by 43 staff members, including many well-known Iowa Staters.

The purpose of the 25-Year Club was, and is, to honor the loyal service of Iowa State faculty and staff. As Colonel Pride wrote to the charter members: “Staff members who have served the College as long as you have, come to personify the College to her alumni. Buildings and land do not make a college, it is the men and women of the staff who make any college....”

New members are welcomed to this honored organization.
O we will fight, fight, fight for Iowa State,
And may her colors ever fly.
Yes, we will fight with might for Iowa State,
With a will to do or die,
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Loyal sons forever true,
And we will fight the battle through.
And when we hit that line we’ll hit it hard ev’ry yard for I.S.U.

Words and Music by Jack Barker ‘30, Manly Rice ‘30 and Paul Gnam ‘32
Arranged by Michael Golemo and Jeff Prater ‘69
To honor Iowa State University faculty and staff completing 25-35-45 and 50 years of continuous service during 2018.
